EXPERIENCE

- Beverage Dispensing Solutions, LLC v. The Coca-Cola Company, Civil Action No. 14-cv-00220, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia; lead counsel defending The Coca-Cola Company against allegations of infringement of seven U.S. patents directed to refrigerated beverage dispensers.
- ATOM Instrument Corporation, et al. v. Petroleum Analyzer Company, LP, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas; lead counsel defending P.A.C. and Roper Technologies, Inc. against pending claims of trade secret misappropriation and patent infringement.
- Petroleum Analyzer Company, L.P. v. Franek Olstowski and Atom Instrument Corporation, Civil Action No. 2006-53995, 269th District Court, Harris County, Texas; lead counsel for P.A.C.; successfully defeated $14.5 million trade secrets claim alleging that PAC was violating a state court order enjoining its use of certain excimer technologies to detect and measure trace amounts of sulfur in petroleum products.
- Automated Tracking Solutions, LLC v. ValidFill, LLC et al., U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia; lead counsel defending The Coca-Cola Company against allegations of infringement of four U.S. patents directed to tracking technologies.
- Rothschild Connected Devices Innovations, LLC v. The Coca-Cola Company, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida; lead counsel defending the Coca-Cola Company against allegations of infringement of its U.S. patents directed to personalized consumer products.

- ACS State Healthcare LLC v. Wipro Inc. et al., Delaware Court of Chancery; lead intellectual property counsel for plaintiff, ACS; reached favorable settlement within 11 months of filing by establishing evidence of misappropriation of ACS's trade secrets.
- Covidien (Tyco Healthcare) v. Dornier MedTech America, Inc., et al., U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California; lead counsel for Dornier MedTech; litigated medical device patent infringement dispute through end of discovery; negotiated and secured favorable settlement six months before remaining defendants were hit with $46 million jury verdict.
- Diomed, Inc. v. Dornier MedTech America, Inc., U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts; lead counsel for Dornier MedTech; negotiated favorable settlement of medical device patent infringement after 20 months of litigation; client's competitor settled its co-pending case involving the same infringement allegations for over $11 million.
- 3M, et al. v. Avery Dennison Corp., U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota, represented 3M in patent infringement litigation asserting thirteen of 3M's patents against its competitor, Avery Dennison; dispute involved retroreflective optics technologies used in traffic safety.
- Amstech Inc. v. Osprey International, Inc. et al., U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia; lead counsel for plaintiff, Amstech; won preliminary and permanent injunctions against competitor's sale of products infringing Amstech's trademark and trade dress rights.
- Conor Medsystems, Inc. – lead worldwide counsel for Conor Medsystems in multiple litigations around the world defending its CoStar-brand paclitaxel drug-coated coronary stent against claims of infringement by Boston Scientific Corp. and Angiotech Pharmaceuticals Inc.; litigation strategies enabled client's $1.4 billion acquisition by Johnson & Johnson to proceed despite pending litigation. International litigation included:
  - Conor Medsystems, Inc. v. Angiotech Pharmaceuticals Inc., et al., United Kingdom Court of Appeal
  - Conor Medsystems, Inc. v. University of British Columbia, Federal Court of Australia

A Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, Jim has tried to verdict cases on behalf of clients from different industries in some of the most hostile jurisdictions in the country. While creative business solutions are almost always preferred, Jim is prepared to zealously protect his clients' interests at trial in the event a reasonable solution cannot be reached.

- Represents Microsoft Mobile Oy in a Section 1 Sherman Act case in Oakland, CA.
- Represented pollution control manufacturer Norit Americas in a five-week theft of trade secrets arbitration that resulted in an award of $37.9 million, in addition to a continuing royalty stream.
- Represented the world's third-largest chemical company in matters across the U.S., ranging from alleged theft of trade secrets to breach of supply contracts.
- Represented as trial counsel a multinational generic pharmaceutical manufacturer in Hatch–Waxman litigation and other commercial disputes.
- Protected a key Daubert ruling, resulting in the preservation of summary judgment, as successor appellate counsel for Union Carbide Corporation.
- Represented The Coca-Cola Company defending patent infringement claims brought against its Freestyle® soft drink dispenser.
- Represented Toyota Motor Sales in economic loss cases arising from alleged sudden unintended acceleration

- Represents Porsche Cars North America Inc. and Porsche AG in multidistrict class action litigation in San Francisco in the Volkswagen "Clean Diesel" MDL.
- Achieved a settlement for a multinational flooring company in a Section 1 Sherman Act case alleging price fixing in the polyurethane foam industry.
- Represented a client in the infant products industry as successor trial counsel in a design patent, Lanham Act, and contract action arising out of allegations of product copying. The case settled after verdict while on appeal.
- Represented a client in the oriented strand board industry as successor trial counsel in a price-fixing action. The case settled on the eve of trial.
- Represented Rite Aid Inc. as lead trial counsel in a putative class action seeking damages for alleged improper reproduction and transfer of pharmacy records. The matter settled on terms favorable to the client.
- Won reversal of a class certification order as successor appellate counsel for Rite Aid Inc.
- Represented as lead trial counsel the world's largest soft drink bottler in two lawsuits in disputes with more than 50 other bottlers concerning methods of distribution of products to mass merchandisers.

- Negotiated settlements for a lease-finance company in two lawsuits seeking to recover on third-party guarantees of $35 million in lease obligations of information technology equipment. The settlements came after the cases withstood summary judgment motions in federal courts.
- Represented a Fortune 50 company before the North Carolina Supreme Court in a defense of the constitutionality of the state's statutory punitive damages cap.
- Served as litigation counsel to the Enron Bankruptcy Examiner, handling all in-court appearances and leading the investigation into investment bank and law firm relationships with Enron.
- Achieved a favorable settlement as lead trial counsel in the breach of a multimillion-dollar take-or-pay contract.
- Won reversal of a class certification order as appellate counsel for a chiropractic clinic in a case alleging improper referrals to a personal injury law firm.

Jim Grant is the national co-leader of the firm's Litigation Area. He has tried more than 25 cases to a jury verdict or arbitration award and has handled more than 50 federal and state appeals. Some of the largest companies in America have relied on Jim to lead enterprise risk litigation, including complex trade secret cases, merger and acquisition disputes, and class actions. He is a Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers.

Over the past 28 years, Jim's clients have included 16 Fortune 500 companies. He has served as litigation counsel for clients in a wide range of industries, including the world's largest software company, an international chemical manufacturer, a nationwide drug store chain, and the world's largest soft drink manufacturer, as well as companies in pharmaceuticals, financial services, and other sectors. Jim handles litigation from its inception but is often brought in as trial counsel or to appeal a case following an adverse verdict.

Jim understands that clients win when they achieve their business objectives. He therefore begins each engagement looking for a positive resolution that stops short of carrying a matter to trial. When matters cannot be resolved through negotiation, Jim is able to draw on the support of the firm's diverse litigation groups to bring a team with the right experience to every type of dispute.

GENERAL PUBLICATIONS     JANUARY 2018

"American Patent Law Continues to Move in a Defendant-friendly Manner That May Stifle Innovation," Financier Worldwide, January 2018.

Patent law in the US has always strived, but failed, to find the right balance between promoting innovation versus cultivating competition. Many practitioners, for example, believe that the 1990s and 2000s were largely pro-patent in the US.
